Military Banner
Recognition Program

How can I participate in the program?

The Hometown Heroes Military Banner Recognition Program honors Yucaipa and Calimesa residents and immediate family members (spouse, parent, child, sibling or grandparent) who are serving on active duty in the United States Armed Forces.

To participate in the program, fill out the attached application and include a copy of verification of Yucaipa or Calimesa residency.

Quantity is limited to one (1) banner per serviceperson and fee is $200 per banner, replacement banners are $150.

Checks payable to:

Rotary Club of Yucaipa

Spelling of the serviceperson's name will be taken directly from this application.

Mail application to:
 Rotary Club of Yucaipa
 P.O. Box 661
 Yucaipa, CA 92399

It is the applicant's responsibility to keep Yucaipa Rotary informed of any changes in contact information and changes in Service Members End of Service Date. Banners will be removed if we cannot contact listed applicant.

Applications will be accepted year-round. Once an approved application is complete with a usable image (must be in uniform) and payment it will be forwarded to the printer for production. The banner will be produced and installed as soon as practical, no time frame can be guaranteed but we will work diligently to get banners installed in a timely manner.

Banners need to be replaced at least every two-four years. We will monitor the banners and contact the families when a banner need to be replaced because of condition. Banners will be removed before their condition dishonors the Service Member.
